Biography & Press Release

Gorilla Pulp is an Italian four-piece band who channels their blues, psych, stoner rock, and heavy metal influences from the 70s' in their own unique way. Born in 2014, as a live 'n' loud project from Maurice Flee (vox/guitars) and Choris (bass), the final lineup was completed with Mr. Vernati (guitars) and Bulldozer (drums) instantaneously. In June, the first work "Hell In a Can" has been recorded and in December, 15th 2014, the first EP has been released under Mother Fuzzer Records from Dublin. GP's official videoclip, from the single "Man Devil Blues", saw the greatest featuring of Marina Mantero and Giada Da Vinci, two of the main Italian international Pornstars!! During July and September 2015, the Gorillas record their first full length album "Peyote Queen" out via Retro Vox Records in April 2016. Gorilla Pulp feature with the song 'Witchcraft', the stellar compilation called the Stoner Box, with bands like Pentagram, Saint Vitus, Hawkwind & many more, out via Cleopatra Records, Los Angeles. In March 2017 they released the new Single "Prey On Your Mind", with the cover of Santana's "Hope You're Feeling Better". The new album HEAVY LIPS will come to light this October 2017 via Retro Vox Records.

Heavy Lips is a Tufo Rock explosion comin' straight from the 70's. 8 Rock'n'Roll tracks of Stoner/Heavy Blues influenced, recorded live & mastered on analog vintage Tape.
